

Why is this called a "Solar Farm" when it is to all intents and purposes it is an industrial facility. When this agricultural land is taken out of food production it will never be reinstated and will then contribute to food shortages in the future.