

Pye solar, is too invasive in South Norfolk. Desemating to tourist industryand with negatively affect pubs and hotels etc. House prices are plummeting, people can't sell as they are stuck near potential sites. The former environment secretary last week highlighted people are being sold that renewalbles is cheap energy, where in fact it isn't. These farms should be utilising roof tops in existing or new buildings, but vital farm land