

when they first started making computers it took up a whole room now people carry them with them all the time. Please look into reducing the size of solar panels and making them more efficient so if you must plant solar factories you will not waste so much countryside which most of us would rather see producing crops