

I do not feel that the due process has occurred in any part of the representation. Nor enough research as to the impact on people that this will have, including mental wellbeing. Not enough research into the massive impacts on nature and the environment- fragmentation of habitat, damage to rare wildlife, including Barbastelle bats. The impact on water security, particularly given the high temperatures and ensuing drought and wildfires we have had; this also serves to highlight the impact on food security.