

I'm apposed to the Tivetshall solar farm as it is in an area of prime agricultural land. And in a time of political turmoil we need to be able to feed ourselves.

It is also of natural beauty, frequented by wildlife, walkers, dog walkers and horse riders. The horse riders have very few places that are safe to ride in this area, and sudden loud noises and the dazzling reflection of panels could cause some very serious accidents.