

All is moving too fast without any real facts. Noise levels , water supplies, land grabbing and other factors haven't had any responsible time governing assessments made. Be careful of what you wish for before the consequences of [REDACTED] businesses rush through and have no responsibilities when it comes to replacement, scrapping and where to discard all outdated batteries (BESS) etc in the future. Most businesses will have gone out of business when that time comes.