

South Norfolk will be ruined at the greed of others, we are very proud of our amazing countryside, i have worked tirelessly to keep 'our green and pleasant land' and it will be changed beyond recognition. The destruction of wildlife habitat will be immense and the damage to the small roads will never be repaired, the council cant keep up with pot holes now. We should learn to use less electricity not more.