

Will the planning inspectorate please ensure that not only do they visit the proposed sites for the solar panels & the battery storage units, but they also examine the proposed access routes both for any construction traffic, and also the connecting corridor. The applicants should give clear detailed assurances before any approval is considered that the disruption to the affected communities is kept to an absolute minimum,