

Submission ID: [REDACTED]

I attended the hearings at Dunston Hall.

If this development proceeds the mental and health impact on local people has not been adequately assessed.

It is not difficult to imagine that someone could take their own life because of the utter distress that has been expressed by older people who live in a rural community which would be destroyed.