Submission ID: S69348278

I am concerned that the solar enterprise is being sited on agricultural land and could be sited in industrial areas within the UK. It is also my understanding that the global carbon footprint ie resources in china etc is greater than the energy produced from this project.
I am also aware of the personal cost eg compulsory purchase to an elderly couple where one of them is registered blind.