Submission ID: S32855044

I feel strongly the size and location for the proposed solar farm is totally inappropriate. This area of precious countryside should be protected from such development and used for agriculture and wildlife for the benefit of all who gain so much from seeing or living near it.The future need for so many solar panels should be questioned and the finite supply of farmland should be protected at all costs.