

In my prior submission I don't think I gave enough emphasis on the geographic and environmental damage the East Pye Solar farm will wreck. The whole area it will impact is beautiful productive countryside. I would therefore like to submit just a few of many photographs from near where I live just outside Woodton. These areas will have looked like this for decades or even centuries and will never be the same if the solar farm is built.

