Submission ID: [redacted]

I have previously made the point that the public walkways that I and my family have enjoyed will be fundamentally changed. I am therefore attaching a few photographs taken in recent years of the paths to the north east of Woodton. These routes and fields on one side of them will be fundamentally changed if the solar panels are built.

