

I did make an oral submission on Thursday 6th Nov st 2.30pm but was unable to finish in the allotted time therefore I would just like to add that people should not have to feel compelled to attend these events and have to delve into the DCO application in order to try to halt these projects because if they failed to engage in this way against these applications it would be interpreted that the public were condoning the projects which certainly is not the case