

Submission ID: S96F386F2

It would be environmental vandalism.

The area is of ecological importance and the vegetation, birds, seals and other wild animals must be protected.

The area is enjoyed by the community and should be protected in its entirety for future generations.