

The Minster Marshlands are a home for do many Species of wildlife and a vital habitat for migrating birds. To remove this ecosystem would have a huge impact on locally linked and wider felt bird and wildlife food and habitat chains. It would be a real local tragedy.