

I am very concerned that the site of natural interest could be greatly damaged by multiple heavy machinery use. The site was once industrialised but I have seen nature take it back. Multiple rabbits, foxes, falcons, kestrels, and many small birds as well as wading birds and migratory birds.