

Michelle Bromwell

The sea link project is in the wrong place. This will effect Pegwell Bay & Minster Marshes, all in the name of environmental progression. These areas support each other in the diverse wildlife which utilise these areas. The use of the "old Hoverport" site is ridiculous. For years we have been told that this area cannot be reutisled because of the environmental damage any disturbance to the "landing area" would cause.