

I think the proposed use of Benhall Railway Bridge as access to the converter station is totally inappropriate. This country lane, near a primary school where I have worked with pupils, should not be a route for huge and numerous construction vehicles.

I note that Lion Link propose to use the same site in which case this awful disruption could potentially continue till 2032.