

I would like to speak about the fact that the local community should have known about the problems associated with Benhall Railway Bridge right from the start and should have had the opportunity to consider SCC's new access route proposal when the access routes were being considered at the statutory consultation stage back in 2023.

I also want to raise questions regarding Suffolk County Council's concerns associated with Benhall Railway Bridge which are so significant that they have now proposed an alternative access route.