

I would like to make a comment about the fact that the difficulties with transporting AILs over Benhall Railway Bridge were not disclosed when access routes to the Saxmundham Converter Stations Site were being considered which meant that the local community was not properly informed as to the implications of the route through Benhall being chosen as the preferred option.