

There are better ways to improve our country's infrastructure namely offshore. If LionLink goes closer to where the power is needed there is absolutely no need for Sealink.