

Submission ID: SE49CE1D5

I do not believe the sea link project is necessary. There are alternative options which are better value for money and do not have such a great environmental impact that have been argued many times.

I also believe in the current political climate these cables will make the country more vulnerable.