

I strongly object to the Sea Link project due to the irreversible damage it would cause to wildlife habitats and valued open space in Thanet, particularly around Pegwell Bay. This is an ecologically important area that cannot be replaced once lost. Such development is unjustified here. Our energy infrastructure must not place shareholder profit above environmental protection and community wellbeing, and this project should be redirected to a more appropriate, less environmentally sensitive location.