Subject: RE: Norwich to Tilbury - Adequacy of Consultation

Good afternoon,

Thank you for your email.

While we appreciate the response you have provided at this time, we are not seeking your views on the project but the adequacy of the consultation undertaken by the applicant.

The Planning Inspectorate must decide whether to accept an application for examination within a fixed period of 28 days. Upon receipt of the application we invited you, as a neighbouring local authority under 'section 43 of the Planning Act', to complete an 'adequacy of consultation representation' proforma.

Local authorities are asked to confirm whether they consider the applicant complied with their pre-application consultation duties as set out in sections 42, 47 and 48 of The Planning Act. This can be supported by additional comments, if necessary. Any comment should be about the pre-application consultation only and not about the project itself. If members of the public have concerns about the way the applicant is carrying out their pre-application consultation, they are advised to contact the applicant. However, if they still have concerns, they are advised to contact the local authority.

We would be grateful if you could complete the attached proforma or provided a statement stating you have no comments to make on the consultation undertaken by the applicant.

We look forward to receiving your response in due course.

Kind regards,

Georgie
