

the application for DCO has not considered alternatives or presented costs in a transparent. The inspectorate should ask for alternatives - e.g. offshore or undergrounding the route, as used by NGET and NG Ventures for other projects. and the project must be considered as part of an holistic transmission strategy