

Submission ID: SC3B66CBE

The Cottey's have experienced multiple intrusive and worrying events as a result of trespass, including theft and damage to their property. The creation of these access points opens the land and increases chances of unauthorised access. National Grid has provided no information on how the land will be secured during construction.