

Submission ID: S09493AE0

This just isn't wanted in our countryside. The damage that will be done is catastrophic. At the very least bury rather than build pylons. We owe it to next generations to do the right thing, not be guided by money and poor decisions.