

the impact on the heritage and environment of Offton and Willisham has recognised by NG as significant, on a par with Dedham Vale. however, we still have new Pylons plus the undergrounding of existing structures. we repeat our request to underground the new. the impact would be similar to that of the Anglian water pipeline nearby, which is now invisible, .