

less intrusive and more cost effective alternatives have been ignored.

Impact on water reserves and potential for reservoirs.

destruction of food producing farmland and forestry/amenity land.

outdated technology versus modern solutions that benefits NG income at the expense of taxpayers money and requirements.

no compensation package to compensate property owners whose business depends on the environment or the reduction of value to peoples houses.

The lack of vision for the future.