

I would like to state my absolute opposition to this project. There has been no interest in the alternative sites. That are better for both areas. Better for both populations better for all involved.