

We have now received (several) notifications of the applicants intention to amend the DCO plan on our clients land. We have not be issued with or seen published a revised plan but now note that a 32 day consultation period appears to have commenced. When will we be issued with the full information regarding this?