Sirs,

Further to my earlier response and now having reviewed the 2000+ responses, mostly objections which I agree with and cannot add to, it seems obvious to me that to allow this proposed disfigurement and devastation across the whole of a single beautiful and peaceful Borough would be unforgiveable and, frankly, nothing short of diabolical.

I hope that the decision-making process is not purely a paper exercise.

I would therefore implore all involved inspectors, ministers, officials, etc to come to the Fylde to see the situation on the ground by walking the whole route from the seashore to its end preferably in the current holiday season.

Yours Sincerely, John Edward Perkins (Lytham resident)
