13.6 Common Land Surveys Questionnaire Responses

Table 13.6.1: Elm Lane

Questionnaire No.	Date	Where are they from?	How have they got there?	How often do they visit?	Which areas do they visit?	Why do they visit?	What is it they value about the area?	Have they encountered other survey teams?	Any other comments?	Surveyors observations
1	24-Sep-17	Cobham	Drive	Once a month	Usually Ockham, today over bridge and Wisley	Dog walking, café and sometimes just a walk	Outdoors, different to normal woods, local	No	Leave us!
2	24-Sep-17	Byfleet	Cycle	1-2 times per week	Use woods on foot and cycle on the roads	Leisure	Trees are beautiful, likes to be in such a green area	No	Concerned about any land take from Wisley
3	24-Sep-17	Hersham and Liphook	Drive	1-2 times per week	Mix of the different areas	Dog walking	Habitat, quiet	No	Queries the need for the scheme, possible lane management on the A3 could alleviate congestion, M25 congestion not impaired by the Wisley Bridge
4	24-Sep-17	Purfard	Drive	Once a month	Airfield, sometimes walk and cycle on Wisley and Ockham Common, walked through and cycled to junction	Cycling	Free of traffic	No	Value greatly in terms of cycle route
5	24-Sep-17	Woking	Drive	1-2 times per week	Footpath and corn fields	Dog walking	Quiet	No	Antisocial bikes but they enjoy the area
6	24-Sep-17	Walton-on-Thames		First time	Airfield	Dog walking	Not being built on - open space	No
7	24-Sep-17	Cobham	Drive	Twice a month	RHS Wisley	Walking	Space	No	Also cycle across the airfield and down Elm Lane to Wisley. Along the cycle path to Wisley footbridge	Asked if one of the purposes was to improve access to Wisley?
8	24-Sep-17	Farnham	Drive	Few times a year	Member of Wisley Gardens	Fly drone, enjoyment, walking	Nature, scenery, escape	No	Strongly against development, a lot of people fly drones in the area. Suggests improved lane discipline; stop moving over too early
9	27-Sep-17	Tooting	Drive	2-3 times per week	South Common	Dog walking	Quiet	No	Nice, quiet area
10	27-Sep-17	Ashted	Drive	1-2 times per week	Wisley	Grand children visit, Wisley social	Nice rural area, woods and fields are nice	No	Access onto the A3 is very difficult
11	27-Sep-17	Hampton Court	Drive	1-2 times per week	Elm Lane and North Downs	Dog walking	Being alone	No	Make the A3 a motorway, poor access to Wisley
12	27-Sep-17	Elm Corner	Walk	Daily	Around airfield	Walking, dog walking	Local, quiet, naturalistic	No	Expressed concerns about impact of proposed work to property and potential for noise

Table 13.6.2: Wisley Common South

Questionnaire No.	Date	Where are they from?	How have they got there?	How often do they visit?	Which areas do they visit?	Why do they visit?	What is it they value about the area?	Have they encountered other survey teams?	Any other comments?	Surveyors observations
1	24-Sep-17	Weybridge	Drive	1-2 times per week	All areas	Dog walking	Proximity, large open spaces, link to other reserves, quiet area	No
2	24-Sep-17	Byfleet	Walk	Daily	Both sides of M25	Wildlife, dog walking, walking in general	Wildlife, walking area	No	Do not build on open space; scheme does not address the real issues (Byfleet Road)
3	24-Sep-17	Walton	Drive	Daily	Both sides of M25	Dog walking	Good for dog walking, families	No	Agrees junction work needs to be done as traffic builds up onto the A3 and M25; new road built must be correctly cordoned off to stop deer running in the road
4	24-Sep-17	Kent	Drive	First time	Wandering around and got lost	Coming up for the day for the first time	Wildlife	No	Shame to cut down trees but if it stops congestion then great; Proposed works wouldn't put them off as the area is quite big so they wouldn't notice small amount of land take
5	24-Sep-17		Drive		Came from café car park - visits most of the site	Dog walking	Trees	No	Disagree with junction improvements as there would be too many cars; improvements don't make things better; against cutting down trees; slow traffic down
6	24-Sep-17		Walk	2-3 times per week	All areas	Dog walking	Local, countryside	No	Underground?; filter pollution
7	24-Sep-17	Byfleet	Cycle	2-3 times per week	Wisley common and over to outfields	Cycling, dog walking	Countryside	No	Like it as it is but other change is welcome
8	24-Sep-17	Wisley (RHS Wisley)	Cycle	Twice a month	Common	Cycling and walking	Getting out and about, wilderness, not a lot of places like this around	No	Student at RHS Wisley where they are strongly against the A3 widening
9	24-Sep-17	Woking	Drive	Once a month	South Wisley, some areas of North Wisley and also visits Wisley RHS	Jogging and to visit the RHS	Open land, nature, conserved, soft under foot, wildlife, good area, peaceful	No	Keep as natural site as much as possible; stick to paths and into woods/scenic route; fantastic play area
10	24-Sep-17	Cobham and Leatherhead	Drive	3-5 times per week	All, over Silvermere and back	Dog walking	Lovely area, so loves to live around here	No	Tend to stick to paths; dogs sometimes go into roam; would hate to lose it
11	24-Sep-17	Silvermere Stables						No	Crossing - access needed, could the slips affect trees access	Stables will be contacted with these questions
12	24-Sep-17	Local - live on top of the hill	Walk	Daily	Sanctuaries over the bridge	Dog walking	Nature reserve	No
