

I would like to reserve my right to be heard at future Issue Specific Hearings, including the one relating to noise currently scheduled for 27th September 2023 at 14:00. However I note that I am away on holiday on this date, and if it proceeds at the fixed time I will need to review what options there are for me to be able to participate and/or submit my views.