Dear Rammiel Burnie

Thank you.

I understand that the inspectors' recommendation to government was due on 10 May.
Is there a summary available to the public?

My submission on 25 April was not my own evidence, but important public information that the government should take into account when deciding if to act on the inspectors' recommendation, so I hope you will pass it on to government.

It is also to be noted that 2 weeks ago a judge ruled overwhelmingly in favour of a court action by Friends of the Earth, Client Earth and the Good Law Project, so the government has to reconsider and strengthen its climate policy.

Kind regards
David Oakley-Hill

Good Morning Mr Oakley-Hill

Thank you for your two emails and attachments received on Thursday 25 April 2024.

The Examination of the above application closed on 10 February 2024. Submissions received after an Examination has closed (during the Recommendation stage of the Planning Act 2008 process) will not be taken into account within an Examining Authority's recommendation report to the Secretary of State. Your submission will be sent to the Secretary of State shortly after we have submitted the Examining Authority's recommendation report. The Secretary of State will decide whether to take your submission into consideration when making the decision on the application.

Further information about the Planning Act 2008 process can be found in the link below to the National Infrastructure Planning website: <https://infrastructure.planninginspectorate.gov.uk/application-process/the-process/>

Kind Regards
Rammiel Burnie
