Dear Sir or Madam

There is very little I can add to the voluminous amount of evidence you have already seen, that shows that the idea of reopening the failed airport at Manston is risible.

The only person who cannot apparently see this is the Secretary of State, Mr Grant Shapps.

However, we all know his predilection for air transport, no matter how outlandish this particular project seems to other people.

I'll keep this short. Your time is valuable and the more time you spend on this, the less will be available for more effective debunking of this monstrosity.

No one in their right mind or without an ulterior motive would dream of building this filthy polluting airport so close to and in direct line with Ramsgate!

Yours faithfully
Stephen Roberts
